Presentations

The College of Nursing was well-represented at the Spring Undergraduate Research Symposium held on April 5, 2022. The following students presented posters:

- Alejandra Tellez-Montenegro: Breast Cancer Experiences in Hispanic Women (faculty mentor: Dr. Ana Sanchez-Birkhead)

- Kari Stoddard: Racially and Ethnically Diverse Midlife Women's Health Needs and Symptom Experience during the Menopausal Transition (faculty mentor: Dr. Lisa Taylor-Swanson)
- Kimberly Ponce-Gonzalez: Nursing Home Administrators Perceptions of the Emotional Care Needs of Dementia Family Care Partners (faculty mentor: Dr. Kathie Supiano)

The American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) held its Graduate Nursing Admissions Professional \(GNAP\) Conference on April 4-6, 2022 in Salt Lake City. GNAP provides a platform for members to share best practices and expert advice, and discuss innovations and practical solutions to everyday challenges that nursing admissions professionals encounter.

- As a member of the GNAP Steering Committee, Carrie Radmall planned the GNAP Conference. According to Beth Aronson, Director of Membership and Business Development for AACN, "Carrie has led AACN's Graduate Nursing Admissions Professionals Leadership Network, by example, through her hard work, dedication, and never-ending kindness. The energy and professionalism Carrie brings to the table has sparked unique ideas and more diverse conversations, engaged the newest members, and helped to unify both the steering committee and the membership at large."
- Dr. Valerie Flattes presented Setting the Tone for Applicants: Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion in Nursing.
- Dean Marla De Jong presented Future of Nursing: Leadership, Excellence, and Inclusion.

Numerous faculty, pre- and post-doctoral fellows, and students presented at the 43rd Annual Meeting and Scientific Sessions of the Society of Behavioral Medicine.
