Presentations:

The Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) Advanced Nursing Education Workforce (ANEW) team (Project Director: Dr. Gwen Latendresse) at the College of Nursing (CON), and the HRSA Utah Medical Education for Underserved Populations team (Project Director: Ty Dickerson) at the School of Medicine co-sponsored the first interprofessional Continuing Education for Community Clinicians Conference in Salt Lake City on June 3-5, 2022. The sponsors invited primary care clinical preceptors from rural, tribal, and underserved communities to attend, supporting their continuing education and showing appreciation for their valuable contributions to University of Utah Health HRSA trainees, and nurse practitioner, nurse-midwife, and medical students. Several CON faculty delivered presentations:

1. Robbins Z, Kilgore T, Tufts G. Advancing Behavioral Health in Primary Care: Depression, Anxiety, Substance Use. Podium presentation.
2. Robinson J, Sanseau E, Lassche M, Morgan M. Telesimulation: Advancing the Quality of Urgent & Emergency Care in Rural & Remote Settings. Podium presentation.
3. Wilson R. Giving Feedback in Difficult Situations. Podium presentation.
4. Flattes V, Marshall I, Backman R, Kieffer M, Bonilla M. Strategies for Clinicians in Resolving Problematic Interactions between Learners, Patients, & Preceptors. Panel discussion.
5. Latendresse G. None of us is Smarter than All of Us. Departing address.

The Utah Navajo Health System sponsored the Women's Health Fair "Catch the Wellness Wave" in Blanding, Utah, on May 13, 2022. The sponsors invited Dr. Gwen Latendresse to address and provide information about perinatal mental health and resources. This presentation was part of an outreach effort for her Utah Department of Health funded maternal mental health project for the state of Utah. A photo above includes Dr. Latendresse and Yikanee Sampson, a CON student in the dual midwifery/women's health track of the Doctor of Nursing Practice program who lives in Montezuma Creek, and is an HRSA ANEW trainee.
